Inventory clerk of the year announced

The Association of Independent Inventory Clerks (AIIC) has announced the winner of the Inventory Clerk Of The Year Award 2011 as Charlotte Leigh of Howard Inventories, based in London.

This is the second year that the AIIC is running the Inventory Clerk Of The Year Award, which asked letting agents and landlords to nominate their inventory clerk from the 500 nationwide AIIC members.

Charlotte Leigh won the prestigious Award because of the large number of glowing references and nominations she received from clients, many of who commented on her 'extremely helpful, efficient and professional service.'

Pat Barber, Chair of the AIIC, said: "We are delighted to have crowned Charlotte Inventory Clerk Of The Year. This is the second year of the Awards and we were very surprised by the large number of nominations we received. The competition was tough, but Charlotte is very worthy winner with outstanding nominations from her clients."

Charlotte Leigh commented: "I would like to thank all my clients that took the time to nominate me and for all the supportive comments they made. I am delighted to have won this Award and would like to thank Pat and the team at AIIC for hosting the great event last week."
